4 2 3

Even after being introduced to this property by the lush front garden, you will still be surprised by what is in store here.

The generously proportioned home, originally built in the 1970's - has seen many improvements and updates over the years to help it to grow into what is has become today. The house enjoys an enormous rumpus / games room, and a spacious modern kitchen complete with stainless steel appliances.

Featuring 4 bedrooms, or three plus a study, there is plenty of scope to personalize this home even further.

Inclusions such as natural gas ducted heating, ceiling fans to bedrooms, wood heaters and a split system ensure year round comfort. Further bonuses include exceptional
