With enormous scope for redevelopment or subdivision (STCA) or even land banking, this lovingly crafted period styled home boasts a huge allotment of over an acre.

Entry to the property is past the post and rail fencing, through the lovely cast iron farm gate, and you are then swept along the circular driveway.

The home is framed by beautifully landscaped gardens, which are certain to surprise and delight on inspection.

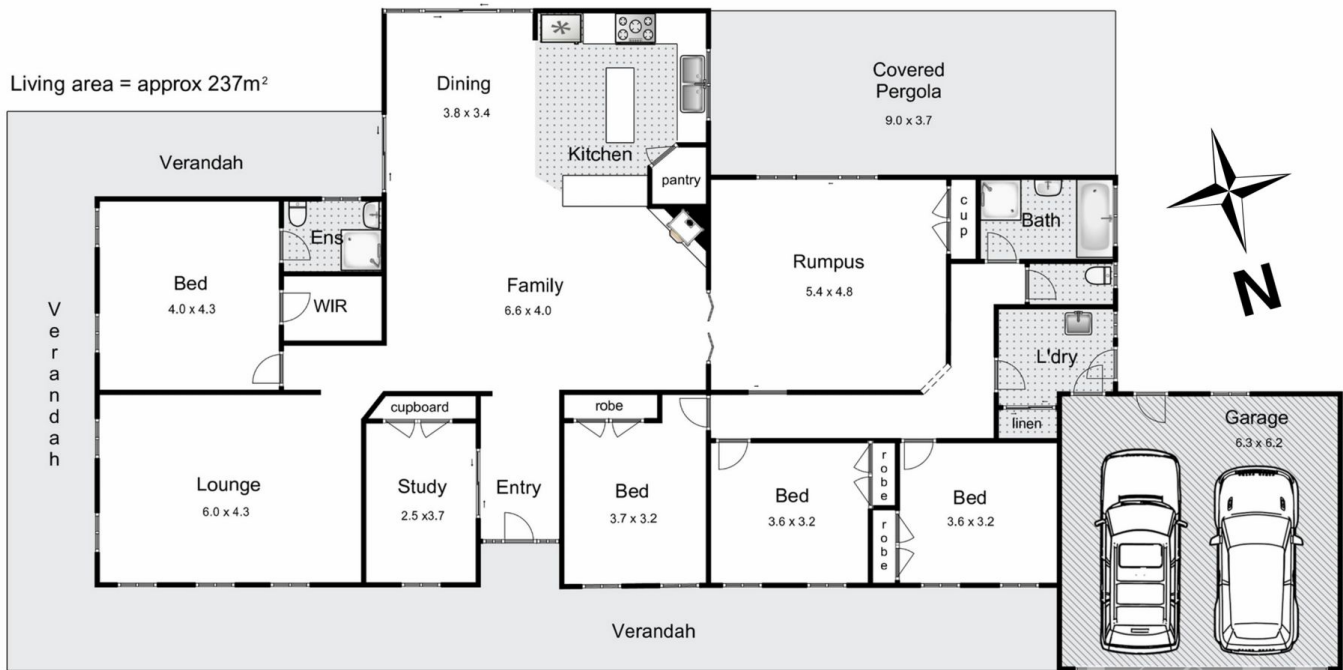

Deep wrap around verandahs and the stunning entry invite you through the home, past the study / 5th bedroom and into a light filled open plan family / dining zone, which features SCWH.

The adjacent central kitchen boasts granite bench tops,
